Key Takeaways:

- ❖ Your In-House Therapists have likely never worked online and NOW they are faced with providing teletherapy. We are here to be your partner and to arm them with proper training, tutorials, videos, resources, and support! Let's transform them into E-Therapists while helping them to be confident and successful in providing telepractice services.
- ❖ We want to share our expertise with all of you, support your therapists, and help during this difficult time in education

 E-Therapy also offers Direct & Indirect Teletherapy Services via our own therapists, as needed*
